

- Peace in Chaos -

Icebreaker:

What is one of the most chaotic situations you've ever been in? How did you feel? How did you handle it? How did you get through it?

Discussion Questions:

Read: Acts 7:54.

1. Have you ever been called out on your sin? If so, how have you reacted?
2. Is there someone, that trusts you, that you need to call out for their sin? How can you do that without hurting that relationship?

Read: Acts 7:55-56.

3. When you're going through a chaotic situation, where do you turn?
 - a. If it's to the things of the world, how do you focus your eyes on Jesus?
4. Is there a situation going on in your life now that you need to give to Jesus?

Read Romans 8:22-25.

5. When you're in the middle of chaos, how do you remind yourself to look to Jesus?
 - a. Remember, we have a hope, in Christ, that transforms all understanding!

Read Acts 7:57-58.

6. Have you ever acted like the religious leaders?
 - a. If so, is there someone you need to forgive that was on the receiving end of your anger?
7. Do you have a trusted friend that will call your sin out?
 - a. If not, is there someone you can ask to do this for you?

Read Acts 7:59.

8. Have you put your faith in Jesus?
9. Do you have someone in mind that you need to share the gospel with?

Read Acts 7:60

10. Is there someone in your life you need to forgive?

Application:

- In the chaos, look to Jesus!
- Jesus is our peace in chaos
- We should want everyone to know Jesus. Even our enemies.